

SUMMER SCHOOL AN INTRODUCTION TO POST-KEYNESIAN ANALYSIS

Toronto – June 23-25, 2017

University of Toronto
Larkin Building, 15 Devonshire Place
Room: TBA

FRIDAY, June 23, 2017

9h15: Welcome address

Louis-Philippe ROCHON (Laurentian University, Canada)

9h30 – 10h30: What is post-Keynesian economics?

Louis-Philippe ROCHON (Laurentian University, Canada)

10h30 – 11h00: Coffee Break

11h00 – 12h30: The role of fiscal policy and the state in post-Keynesian theory

Mario SECCARECCIA (University of Ottawa, Canada)

12h30 – 13h45: Lunch

14h00 – 15h30: The role of debt in post-Keynesian economics: Real and financial components

Joelle LECLAIRE (SUNY- Buffalo State, USA)

15h30 – 16h00 Coffee Break

16h00 – 17h30: Some theoretical roots of post-Keynesian economics

Robert DIMAND (Brock University, Canada)

SATURDAY, June 24, 2017

9h00 – 10h30: A history of endogenous money/ monetary policy in post-Keynesian analysis

Louis-Philippe ROCHON (Laurentian University, Canada)

10h30-11h00: Coffee Break

11h00 – 12h30: Post-Keynesian theories of income distribution

John SMITHIN (York University, Canada)

12h30-13h45: Lunch

14h00-15h30: A history of central banking

Matías VERNENGO (Bucknell University, USA)

15h30-16h00: Coffee Brek

16h00 – 17h30: A post-Keynesian approach to development: The case of Africa

Salewa 'Yinka OLAWOYE (Ryerson University, Canada)

SUNDAY, June 25, 2017

9h00 – 10h30: The importance of interdisciplinary research in post-Keynesian economics

Guillaume VALLET (University of Grenoble – Alpes, France) and Nicolas ZORN (University of Montréal, Canada)

10h30 – 11h00: Coffee Break

11h00 – 12h30: An introduction to mathematics for heterodox economists

Matheus GRASSELLI (McMaster University, Canada)

12h30 – 12h45: Saying Goodbye